Partnership between parents and teachers is vital and Lee's book strengthens that link and will help your child succeed at school Helen Loveday-Sims, English Teacher This is a great little book. Easy to read and packed with really practical ideas that feel doable as parents trying to help our kids. It makes a big difference to know that this book is all drawn from Lee's experience as a youth worker, school speaker and parent - very down to earth stuff. A really good pointer on how I can best help my kids. Tim Morfin, CEO TLG The Education Charity Lee's book will help all families navigate the stress that is exam-time. Along the way, don't forget to let your teens know you love them whatever grade they get. Rob Parsons OBE, CEO Care for the Family. Simply brilliant! Lee provides practical no-nonsense tips and techniques to help parents guide their children through one of the most stressful, but arguably important, time of their lives. Schools and teachers can only do so much...
