Recollect Popes adage--Man never is, but always to be blessed. Nor woman, either, she would have replied, when the prompters boy, popping into the room with his squeaking falsetto voice, cried out, Mrs. Warner! and Mrs. Warner disappeared to enstain her hands, for the many hundreth time with the golden blood of Duncan. It was with unqualified success Mr. Bunn produced his famous Bohemian Girl, with Balfes music And, if we are to judge by its attraction and long run, the very best criterion, it was the most popular English opera ever yet produced. Miss Romer, Arline; Mr. William Harrison, the splendid tenor, Thaddeus, her Bohemian lover; Miss Betts, (the heroine of my Robbers...
