Present yourselves each day, each hour, each moment, with each joy, each sorrow, each duty, each difficulty-present all as an offering to Him, Who expects your reasonable service. This is the lesson which the child on the Temple steps teaches us to-day-the lesson of self-sacrifice. Point II.-Joachim and Anne Her parents did not thwart her in her wish. They had made their sacrifice three years before, and they were not likely to take it back now. They had probably told Mary the story of their long, childless years; of their earnest prayers to God; and of their promise to give the child back to Him should He bless them with one. They would have told her, too, that they had offered her to God at birth, and that, as soon as she was old enough, she would present herself in God s Temple, as something dedicated to His service. And now, to-day, they accompany their little one to the holy dwelling-place where she is to minister before Him, and watch her climbing the Temple steps, at the top of which the Priest is waiting to[.].
