Excerpt: . . . 11 But with the continuing challenges Darfur and with less than 24 months left to follow the CPAs roadmap for consolidating peace, our most critical tasks lie ahead. The situation for the 4. 7 million people affected by the conflict in Darfur remains intolerable. While we have managed to fill many of the gaps left by the expulsion of 13 international NGOs in March, these measures are temporary and must be replaced by a more sustainable, long-term strategy that is finally accompanied by sustainable, long-term peace. Compounding the situation, carjackings, staff abductions and assaults, break-ins targeting NGO facilities, and ongoing military campaigns still impede the delivery of humanitarian assistance to Darfur and have resulted in both temporary and permanent suspensions of life-saving programs. Constant insecurity and violence continue to be the primary factors limiting the effective delivery of humanitarian assistance. Meanwhile, Sudanese expectations that they would benefit from the peace that came in 2005 remain...
