Excerpt: . Must The Chinese Go? The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; 3Tea, they have oppressed the strang-er wrongfully. --Ezek. xxii. 29. Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them. -- Matt. vii. 12. What you do not like when done to yourself, do not do to others. --Confucius Doctrine of the Mean (chap. xiii). The spectacle now presented by the Government of this country, in its attitude toward the Chinese, even leaving* Chtistianity entirely out of the question, ought to bring the blush of shame to the face of every honorable, fair-minded man. Seeking, even insisting upon, a treaty of amity and trade with a weaker people, pledging its national honor for the protection of any of that people who come to us,...
