Picador USA. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Empire Rising, Thomas Kelly, It is 1930, and ground has just been broken for the Empire State Building. One of the thousands of men who will come to work high above the city is Michael Briody, an Irish immigrant torn between his desire to make a new life in America and his pledge to gather money and arms for the Irish republican cause. When he meets Grace Masterson, an alluring artist who is depicting the great skyscraper's rise from her houseboat on the East River, Briody's life suddenly turns exhilarating--and dangerous--for Grace is also a paramour of Johnny Farrell, Mayor Jimmy Walker's liaison with Tammany Hall and the underworld. Thomas Kelly is the author of two previous novels: "Payback," called "the best story about New York's labor unions, corrupt contractors and organized crime since "On the Waterfront"" (S"an Francisco Chronicle"); and "The Rackets," described as "an elegy for the city's old Irish working class, and even for its tangled, unavoidable dealings with the Mafia" ("The New York Times Book Review"). Kelly, who worked for ten years in construction, is a graduate of Fordham University and Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government. He lives in New York City. A "New York Times "Notable BookA "Chicago"" Tribune "Best Book of the Year It is 1930, and ground has just been broken for The Empire State Building, dubbed "the Eighth Wonder of the World." One of the thousands of men working high above the city is Michael Briody, an Irish immigrant torn between his desire to make a new life in America and his pledge to gather money and arms for the Irish Republican cause.
