No educational advantages are offered. ADVERTISING FOR SUPPLIES. Advertising for supplies is done annually. The Medical Superintendent submits a schedule of all supplies needed, and the State Commission in Lunacy frames the advertisement and furnishes each hospital with blank schedules, showing the kind and amount of supplies desired, which are distributed among those who wish to bid. This schedule also contains all of the information necessary to guide the bidder, as to time, manner, etc. The system of advertising once a year instead of twice, is preferable, as the State gets better contracts and less expense attends it. EXAMINATION FOR APPLICANTS. It is necessary for all applicants for positions at this State hospital to undergo an examination. The questions are prepared by the Medical...
