Ayn Rand's novel, Anthem, is a story set in a world where communism is the way of life. The main character in this book is a very enthusiastic boy named Equality 7-2521. Equality 7-2521 is the type of guy who loves to read every book you put in his hands. Equality 7-2521 is a brilliant boy. In Equality 7-2521's society boys and girls are both given jobs at age fifteen. The jobs are given to them by a select group called the Council of Vocations. The Council of Vocations gave Equality 7-2521 the job as a street sweeper. The street sweeper job is not a big one; due to the fact all they do is clean the streets day and night. Many people that are given the jobs of a street sweeper are not the brightest; Equality 7-2521 is the opposite. He is one of the smartest in his class and the Council of Vocations knows that. Equality 7-2521 wanted to be elected to The Home of the Scholars, who develop technology to improve the society. One of the inventions developed by the Home of the Scholars was the candle. Equality 7-2521 loved the candle and was so fascinated with it. When he was younger he discovered a tunnel where he could go and get away from everyone. In this tunnel he invented one of the town's greatest inventions, the light bulb. During the story, Equality 7-2521 goes to a mating house, where people pair you up with your mate. In Equality 7-2521's world the word I is never used, because in Communism there is no I, just we. Buy this book to find out what happens to...
