General Accounting Office, 2001 OCLC Number: (OCOlc)55140487 Subject: Peacekeeping forces -- Records and correspondence -- Access control. Excerpt: . . . ENCLOSURE II 12 or activity the Government carries out under existing law. The Director stated that our review instead involved assessing how the President discharged his constitutional authority in foreign policymaking, which GAO could not review. We disagree with this overly narrow interpretation of section 717 (b). With certain limited mandated exceptions, section 717 (b) extends to any activity of the U. S. government carried out under the U. S. Constitution or U. S. statute. The authority provided is not restricted to limited groups of programs and activities that are created by particular statutes. We also note that a number of statutes do provide for U. S. participation in U. N. peacekeeping activities. For example, the U. N. Participation Act of 1945, as amended, authorizes U. S. 13 participation in U. N. peacekeeping activities. Moreover, in recent years Congress has 14 passed additional legislation dealing specifically with these activities. 12 In support of this position, the Director relied on a Justice Department opinion issued in 1988. See 12 Op. Off. Legal Counsel 171 (1988). 13 Generally, 22 U. S. C. 287 and following, and specifically, 22 U. S. C. 287d, 287d-1 and 287-e-2. 14 Public law 103-236, 404 (b) and 407 (a), 108 stat. 447-48 (1994); Public law 106-113, app. G, 911 (b), 113 stat. 1501A-476 (1999).
